Sheila Searle & family send their heartfelt thanks to all who contributed to making David's funeral service such a moving and inspiring occasion, and to all who attended in person and online. Thanks also to those who have sent messages of sympathy or offered support. David would have been amazed at the response to his death and it is giving me great comfort at this difficult time. God bless you all Sheila.
 Please continue to pray for Sheila and family as her sister died on Friday.

OMEGA course about Death and Dying. St Mark's is hosting this excellent short course to help us talk together about a subject that is so often taboo. It will be practical, with time to reflect and think about our own wishes, and to learn how to respond to others who are bereaved or facing end of life issues. And there will be cake, and also soup! Fri 6 Mar 1-5pm and Sat 7 Mar 10am-4pm. For all ages, and is a great thing to do with a group of friends/small group. Info from Marie Calvert .

Next Welcome Brunch Sun 8th March after the morning service.

Unconscious Bias Training. Wed 25th March 7-9.30pm. This free course is run by Coventry Diocese and is open to all. You can book or find out more either via Equip Hub <https://www.equiphub.org.uk/courses-events-and-resources/unconscious-bias-awareness-evening-march-2026/> or the church office.

Recycling in Church. Toothpaste tubes can now go in kerb side recycling! So, we are collecting all other dental products only. Also, Biro's, cosmetic containers, old spectacles/glasses, and now Marigold gloves. There are two small boxes on the right of the right hand sofa at the back of church for these. Many thanks, the Eco Team.
